

The Good Samaritan

Mark Keeler

Questions for Discussion and Application:

- 1) How would you describe how the Pharisee and the Levite avoid the man who was beaten? Is legalism a fair description, or is this passage understood better in another way?
- 2) Is legalism something that you have in your own life? Have you ever found yourself excluding someone based on the rules you hold yourself to? (ex. Having trouble relating to someone who struggles with something you don't understand.)
- 3) What's the opposite of legalism?
- 4) Do we create God in our own image?
- 5) Have you ever felt like you have limited God's power in your own life because of this?
- 6) Do you see a correlation between legalism and how we understand salvation? Are the concepts at odds with each other, or are they related?
- 7) Matthew 13:44 "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field." Why is this verse so challenging?
- 8) Are there other verses or stories from the bible that this verse makes you think of?
- 9) So who does get into heaven? Is Jesus teaching us that we earn heaven, or is there something else going on?

The Good Samaritan

Mark Keeler

Questions for Discussion and Application:

- 1) How would you describe how the Pharisee and the Levite avoid the man who was beaten? Is legalism a fair description, or is this passage understood better in another way?
- 2) Is legalism something that you have in your own life? Have you ever found yourself excluding someone based on the rules you hold yourself to? (ex. Having trouble relating to someone who struggles with something you don't understand.)
- 3) What's the opposite of legalism?
- 4) Do we create God in our own image?
- 5) Have you ever felt like you have limited God's power in your own life because of this?
- 6) Do you see a correlation between legalism and how we understand salvation? Are the concepts at odds with each other, or are they related?
- 7) Matthew 13:44 "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field." Why is this verse so challenging?
- 8) Are there other verses or stories from the bible that this verse makes you think of?
- 9) So who does get into heaven? Is Jesus teaching us that we earn heaven, or is there something else going on?