

“From thence he will come to judge the quick and the dead”

- The job of a judge is to make things _____.

To say “Jesus is Lord” is to say that we’re not willing to wait until the _____ to live the way God created us to live.

Questions for Reflection:

1. In the message, Kory said we primarily think of Jesus as our savior, but early Christians thought of him first of all as Lord. What is the difference? What is the connection between Jesus as savior and Jesus as Lord?
2. What does it mean for someone to be “lord?”
3. What are some things we make into “lords?”
4. What are some things that Jesus needs to replace as Lord in your life?
5. In what ways is Jesus what we are intended to be? How do we follow His example? What example do we follow?
6. Does it matter that Jesus will “judge” (bring justice to) the world? If so, why?
7. Knowing Jesus will be the judge in the end, what is our responsibility?

Who is Jesus?

Before we ask, “Who is Jesus to you?” we need to ask, “Who is Jesus, _____?”

The Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth
And in Jesus Christ his only son, our Lord;
Conceived of the Holy Spirit; Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified dead and buried;
He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven;
And sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
