

Reflection Question: Reflect on 2020. Though it has been a difficult year, what has filled you with thanksgiving?

Read Philippians 4:8.

Write your reflections or prayer:

The Weary World Rejoices . . . Hope

Today will be a different day. In the transition from Thanksgiving to Advent we explore the connection between Thanksgiving and hope. The Christmas story shows us how remembering God's gracious acts and trusting his character can help us maintain hope even in dire circumstances.

Today, we will take the time to remember God's work in our lives, give thanks for it, and allow it to fill us with hope for the future.

Reflection Question: Reflect on the Christmas story. What aspect of the story fills you with thanksgiving?

Read any of these passages of the Christmas story:

- Luke 1:26 – 2:21
- Isaiah 9:1-7
- Matthew 1:18 – 2:12

Write your reflections or prayer:

Reflection Question: Reflect on seasons of your life. What fills you with thanksgiving? What has God done through the years?

Read James 1:17.

Write your reflections or prayer: