

Questions for Group or Individual Reflection:

1. How do you know if Scripture is the lens through which you see God, the world, or yourself?
2. In what ways has your body shaped your identity?
3. How are you defined by your relationships?
4. What past events in your story have shaped you most profoundly?

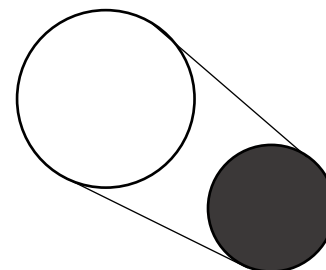

This is Our Story

We believe in a _____ that has been unfolding since the beginning of time and revealed to humanity by God through the _____.

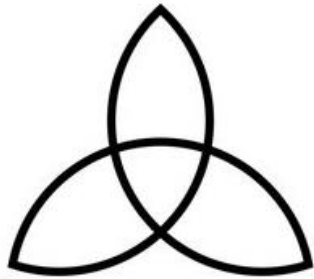

This story is not about _____!

What does it mean to be human?

Plato

A better way to think about identity:

We have a _____.

- 1 Cor 6:19-20
- Jesus

We exist in _____.

- _____
- Other groups
- With the _____. (John 3:16)
- With _____.

We have a _____.

God has placed you—your body and relationships—into a story that is _____ being _____.

The Point: We must find ourselves in God's big story.

Jesus will not be _____!

The Biblical story must become the _____ through which we see God, the world and ourselves.

The Movements of Scripture

1. We are made in the _____ of _____.
2. The world is _____.
3. We have a _____ who _____ us.
4. We are given grace that _____ us.
5. We find our _____ in God's _____.