

Jesus did not come as a _____.

I am the way, the truth and the life is an _____.

Isn't it Narrow-Minded to Believe Jesus is the Only Way?

"I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you really know me, you will know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him." (John 14:6-7)

This is a reasonable question because we live in a world that is _____.

There are many ways to articulate this question:

“Isn’t it _____ to believe you have the truth?”

- The claim: All religions have _____ of the truth, but none has the _____ truth.
- The problem: While this seems humble, it’s actually another claim to _____ the truth.

“Religious belief is too _____ bound to claim to be the truth.”

- The Claim: “You’re only an X because you grew up in Y!”
- The problem: People don’t apply this standard to _____.

“Any claim to truth is a _____ - _____ to gain control over others.”

- Claim: Religions make up truth to control the masses.
- Claim: History is filled with _____ done in the name of God.
- The problem: This critique is often _____.

We cannot _____ truth claims, but we can hold them _____.

If we can’t avoid truth claims, why should we believe Jesus?

1. Jesus claimed to _____ the truth, yet wasn’t _____ at all.

2. The way of Jesus is not _____.
- Luke 4:18
 - Matthew 20:25-28
 - Mt 5:39
 - Mt 5:44

3. Christianity gives us solid ground for _____ rights.

4. The way of Jesus isn’t _____ conditioned.
It both affirms and critiques _____ cultures.
